“Children’s self-regulation skills are correlated with their academic skills.”

-Child Development

There are approximately 1.3 million children younger than age 6 in Florida.

Imagine the difference a quality child-care program could provide each of them. They would have a greater chance to succeed in school and in life.

The Pre-Kindergarten Task Force found that for dual-language learners a pre-K education greatly improved their English-language proficiency. It's a win-win for all!

Enrolling your kids in early childhood education programs gives them the tools to succeed once they enter elementary school.
